

REMARKS

At the outset, the Examiner is thanked for the thorough review and consideration of the pending application. The Office Action dated May 16, 2007 has been received and its contents carefully reviewed.

Claims 13-22 are rejected by the Examiner. With this response, claim 13 has been amended. No new matter has been added, and no claims are canceled. Accordingly, claims 13-22 are pending in this application with claims 1-12 having been withdrawn in response to the Examiner's requirement for restriction. Reexamination and reconsideration of the pending claims are respectfully requested.

In the Office Action, claims 13-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. Also, claims 13-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps.

The rejections of claims 13-22 under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement and under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps are respectfully traversed and reconsideration is requested.

The Examiner rejects claim 13 as alleging that it contains a subject matter which was not enabled to one of skill in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to rotate the substrate while the substrate being loading onto a table. Moreover, the Examiner rejects claim 13-22 as reciting omitting essential steps and alleging that the omitted step is the step of loading the substrate onto a plate that loading over a table for rotating purpose(s).

Claim 13 has been amended to include "loading a substrate onto a plate on a table . . ." Accordingly, Applicant submits that claims 13-22 fully comply with the written description requirement of 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph and second paragraph, and respectfully requests that the objection be withdrawn.
